

GAMBLE

Meaning: GAMBLE (verb): To take a risky action or engage in a game of chance, often involving betting money or resources in hopes of achieving a desired outcome.

1. Many people enjoy the thrill of a gamble when they visit a casino.
2. He decided to gamble on his future by starting his own business.
3. Taking a gamble on a new investment can lead to significant rewards or losses.
4. She knew it was a gamble to trust him again after all that had happened.
5. The team took a gamble by changing their strategy in the final minutes of the game.
6. He decided to gamble on the stock market, hoping for a quick return.
7. She had always been cautious with her finances, so the idea of gambling made her anxious.
8. After a night at the casino, he realized that gambling could be both thrilling and dangerous.
9. The risk of losing everything made him reconsider whether to gamble on the new business venture.
10. They agreed to gamble on their friendship, trusting each other despite the risks involved.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gamble>