

GANGRENE

Meaning: Gangrene is the death and decay of body tissue, often due to a lack of blood supply or infection, requiring urgent medical attention.

1. Gangrene can develop if an injury is not treated promptly.
2. The patient's leg showed signs of gangrene, necessitating immediate medical intervention.
3. In some cases, diabetes can lead to gangrene due to poor circulation.
4. The doctor explained that gangrene is often associated with infection and tissue death.
5. Early detection of gangrene is crucial to prevent the loss of limbs.
6. Gangrene can occur when blood flow to a certain area of the body is severely restricted.
7. The doctor explained that untreated infections could lead to gangrene and serious health complications.
8. In severe cases, gangrene may necessitate surgical intervention to remove dead tissue.
9. Recognizing the early signs of gangrene is crucial for preventing its progression and potential amputation.
10. The patient was warned about the risk of gangrene following the injury to his foot.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gangrene>