

GAP-TOOTHED

Meaning: Gap-toothed refers to having gaps or spaces between the teeth, often resulting in a distinctive smile.

1. She had a charmingly gap-toothed smile that made her look even more endearing.
2. The gap-toothed boy was often teased at school, but he wore his uniqueness with pride.
3. During the casting call, the director specifically sought actors with gap-toothed grins to fit the quirky character.
4. Her gap-toothed laugh filled the room with warmth and joy, making everyone feel at ease.
5. Many famous models have embraced their gap-toothed appearance, turning it into a distinctive feature.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gap-toothed>