

GAP

Meaning: GAP: a space or interval between two points, objects, or concepts, often indicating a lack or deficiency in knowledge or a physical separation.

1. There was a noticeable gap in our understanding of the subject matter.
2. The hikers carefully crossed the gap between the two cliffs.
3. He filled the gap in the team by taking on additional responsibilities.
4. The economic gap between the rich and the poor continues to widen.
5. She noticed a gap in the fence where the dog could escape.
6. The recent economic report highlighted a significant gap in income inequality across the country.
7. She noticed a gap in the fence that allowed the curious dog to wander into the neighbor's yard.
8. The teacher asked the students to fill in the gap in the paragraph with their own ideas.
9. There is a noticeable gap between the expectations set by management and the current performance of the team.
10. After the storm, there was a gap in the road that made it impassable for vehicles.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gap>