

GAPE

Meaning: GAPE: to stare with open mouth in amazement or wonder.

1. She couldn't help but gape in astonishment at the breathtaking view from the mountaintop.
2. The children gaped in awe as the magician pulled a rabbit out of his hat.
3. He gaped at the enormous sculpture that dominated the city square.
4. As the news unfolded, the audience began to gape in disbelief at the shocking revelations.
5. The dog gaped at the strange noise coming from the bushes, unsure of what to expect.
6. The audience began to gape in astonishment as the magician performed his final trick.
7. She couldn't help but gape at the breathtaking view from the mountaintop.
8. As the news broke, people gathered around, their mouths agape in disbelief.
9. The child gaped at the enormous dinosaur skeleton displayed in the museum.
10. He stood there, gaping at the colorful fireworks lighting up the night sky.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gape>