GARBEL

Meaning: GARBEL (verb): To sort through or carefully examine items, often to organize or clean them.

1. The old man used to garbel his collection of coins, examining each piece with meticulous care.
2. In the garden, she would garbel the leaves to ensure a clean and tidy appearance.
3. Before finalizing the report, he needed to garbel the data for any errors or inconsistencies.
4. As a gardener, it’s essential to garbel the seeds before planting to remove any that are damaged or diseased.
5. When preparing the spices, she would garbel them to guarantee only the freshest ingredients were used.
6. The artist's studio was filled with the garbel of paint and canvas, creating an inspiring chaos.
7. As the wind swept through the trees, it carried with it the garbel of fallen leaves.
8. He couldn't shake off the garbel of doubt that clouded his mind before the big presentation.
9. In the old library, the garbel of dusty books and forgotten knowledge created a mysterious atmosphere.
10. Their conversation was a garbel of laughter and serious topics, reflecting their close friendship.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/garbel