

GARBLER

Meaning: Garbler: a person who distorts or misrepresents information, often leading to confusion or misunderstanding.

1. The politician was often labeled a garbler, twisting facts to fit his narrative.
2. During the debate, the garbler confused the audience with his convoluted arguments.
3. Her reputation suffered when she was caught being a garbler, misrepresenting the study's findings.
4. As a garbler of information, he inadvertently spread rumors that caused panic among the community.
5. In today's fast-paced media landscape, a garbler can easily distort the truth with just a few clicks.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/garbler>