

GARBOIL

Meaning: Garboil (noun): a state of noisy confusion or uproar.

1. The classroom erupted into a garboil of excitement as the students prepared for the science fair.
2. After the debate, there was a garboil of opinions as attendees expressed their views passionately.
3. Amid the garboil of the bustling market, she found the perfect gift for her friend.
4. The unexpected news created a garboil in the office, with employees buzzing about the implications.
5. As the concert began, a garboil of cheers filled the air, drowning out the sound of the opening act.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/garboil>