

GARDYLOO

Meaning: "Gardyloo" is an exclamation used to warn people below when disposing of waste from a window or balcony.

1. The old man shouted "gardyloo" as he emptied his chamber pot into the street.
2. In medieval towns, it was common to warn passersby with a loud "gardyloo" before tossing waste out the window.
3. The children giggled every time they heard the phrase "gardyloo," imagining the mess it referred to.
4. During the tour of the historic district, the guide explained how "gardyloo" served as an early form of public notice.
5. She exclaimed "gardyloo!" just in time for her friend to duck out of the way of the falling water.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gardyloo>