

GARGARISM

Meaning: Gargarism refers to the nonsensical or repetitive use of phrases that lack deeper meaning, often employed in literature to evoke confusion or surrealism.

1. Gargarism is often misunderstood as a simple repetition of phrases without any deeper meaning.
2. In literature, gargarism can sometimes be used to create a sense of confusion or surrealism.
3. The poet's use of gargarism left the audience puzzled yet captivated by the sound of the words.
4. Critics argue that gargarism detracts from the overall message of the piece, making it harder to engage with.
5. Some writers intentionally incorporate gargarism to challenge readers' expectations of coherence in language.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gargarism>