

GARMENTURE

Meaning: Garmenture refers to a collection or ensemble of clothing or attire, often designed with artistic or fashionable intent.

1. The tailor presented a stunning garmenture that captivated the audience at the fashion show.
2. Her unique sense of style was reflected in the exquisite garmenture she designed for the charity gala.
3. As the designer unveiled her latest garmenture, the crowd erupted in applause for its intricate details.
4. He carefully selected each fabric to create a garmenture that would stand the test of time.
5. The garmenture worn by the models was a perfect blend of elegance and modern aesthetics.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/garmenture>