

GARNER

Meaning: To garner means to gather or acquire something, such as attention or support, through effort or action.

1. Her research efforts began to garner attention from prominent scientists in the field.
2. The charity event was able to garner substantial support from local businesses.
3. Through hard work and dedication, he managed to garner the respect of his colleagues.
4. The film aims to garner critical acclaim and attract a wide audience.
5. Social media can be a powerful tool to garner public interest in important issues.
6. She hopes to garner enough support for her charity event.
7. The journalist worked hard to garner insights from various experts.
8. His dedication to the project helped him garner respect from his peers.
9. In an effort to garner attention, the artist unveiled a provocative new piece.
10. The team's recent success has begun to garner interest from potential sponsors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/garner>