

GARRETING

Meaning: Garreting is a method of strangulation or choking used to incapacitate an opponent or as a means of committing a crime.

1. Garreting is a technique used in various forms of martial arts to subdue an opponent.
2. The crime scene revealed signs of garreting, raising concerns about the suspect's methods.
3. In the film, the antagonist employed garreting as a means to silence his adversaries.
4. The forensic expert explained how garreting can lead to asphyxiation if applied too tightly.
5. Witnesses reported hearing a struggle before the garreting incident took place.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/garreting>