

GASCONADER

Meaning: Gasconader: a person who boasts or exaggerates, often telling grand or heroic stories about themselves.

1. The old sailor was known as a gasconader, always spinning grand tales of his adventures at sea.
2. Despite his impressive resume, his gasconader tendencies made it difficult for colleagues to trust his claims.
3. Her gasconader nature often left friends questioning which stories were embellished and which were true.
4. At the party, he captivated the crowd with his gasconader stories, each more outrageous than the last.
5. Though entertaining, his gasconader persona sometimes overshadowed his genuine talents and accomplishments.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gasconader>