

GASHFUL

Meaning: GASHFUL: Adjective describing someone who is shy or bashful, often exhibiting a tendency to blush or feel self-conscious in social situations.

1. The gashful child blushed deeply when called on to speak in front of the class.
2. Despite his gashful demeanor, he had remarkable talent in storytelling.
3. She felt gashful under the spotlight, her hands trembling as she addressed the audience.
4. His gashful nature often led him to avoid eye contact during conversations.
5. Even the most gashful individuals can shine when surrounded by supportive friends.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gashful>