GASOLIER

Meaning: A gasolier is a type of decorative chandelier that is designed to hold gas lamps for illumination.

1. The antique gasolier hanging in the foyer added a touch of elegance to the old mansion.

2. As she entered the dimly lit room, the flickering light from the gasolier cast dancing shadows on the walls.

3. Restoring the gasolier was a labor of love for the craftsmen who cherished its intricate design.

4. In the grand dining hall, the gasolier illuminated the table, making the meal feel even more special.

5. The museum showcased a stunning gasolier from the Victorian era, drawing admiration from all its visitors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gasolier