

GASOSCOPE

Meaning: Gasoscope: a device used for monitoring and detecting gas emissions, particularly in industrial environments.

1. The gasoscope is an essential tool for monitoring gas emissions in industrial settings.
2. Engineers used the gasoscope to detect leaks in the pipeline before they could pose a safety risk.
3. With the advancements in technology, the gasoscope now provides real-time data on gas concentrations.
4. During the safety inspection, the technician relied on the gasoscope to ensure compliance with environmental regulations.
5. Training on the proper use of the gasoscope was crucial for the new staff to maintain workplace safety.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gasoscope>