

GASTEROPODOUS

Meaning: GASTEROPODOUS refers to a class of mollusks, commonly known as gastropods, characterized by a single, usually spiral shell and a distinct head, including snails and slugs.

1. The study of gasteropodous creatures reveals fascinating adaptations for survival in diverse environments.
2. In the damp forest, we encountered several gasteropodous species slowly gliding over the mossy ground.
3. Gasteropodous animals, such as snails and slugs, play crucial roles in their ecosystems by aiding in the decomposition of organic matter.
4. The gasteropodous class of mollusks showcases an incredible variety of shapes, sizes, and colors.
5. Observing gasteropodous organisms can provide insights into marine biology and the effects of pollution on aquatic life.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gasteropodous>