

GASTRILOQUOUS

Meaning: GASTRILOQUOUS: relating to or characterized by ventriloquism, where a person appears to speak without moving their lips, often using a puppet or dummy to create the illusion of life.

1. The magician's gastriloquous act left the audience in awe, as his puppet seemed to speak with a life of its own.
2. Her gastriloquous performances were so convincing that many believed she had a genuine connection with the puppet.
3. In ancient times, gastriloquous entertainers were often sought for their ability to enthrall crowds with animated dialogues.
4. During the festival, the gastriloquous storyteller captivated children and adults alike with his charming narratives.
5. He practiced gastriloquous techniques for years, perfecting his skill to make it seem as though the ventriloquist doll was truly alive.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gastriloquous>