

GATEHOUSE

Meaning: A gatehouse is a building or structure at the entrance of a castle or fortified area, often serving as a checkpoint or reception area.

1. The ancient castle's gatehouse was adorned with intricate stone carvings.
2. Tourists often stop to take photos of the impressive gatehouse before entering the grounds.
3. The gatehouse served as the main entry point, offering a view of the lush gardens beyond.
4. Security personnel were stationed at the gatehouse to monitor all incoming visitors.
5. Historically, the gatehouse played a crucial role in defending the castle from invaders.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gatehouse>