

GAUFFER

Meaning: A 'gaffer' is a person who specializes in creating patterns on fabric, or in film production, the chief electrician responsible for lighting setups.

1. The artisan used a gaffer to create intricate patterns on the fabric.
2. During the film shoot, the gaffer was responsible for all the lighting setups.
3. She admired the way the gaffer skillfully manipulated the lights to enhance the scene.
4. The gaffer meticulously adjusted the brightness to ensure the actors were well-lit.
5. In theater productions, the gaffer plays a crucial role in setting the mood with lighting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gauffer>