

GAUFFRE

Meaning: Gauffre is a French term for a waffle, typically characterized by a crispy texture and often served with various toppings.

1. The café served delicious gauffres topped with fresh strawberries and whipped cream.
2. During my trip to Belgium, I indulged in a crispy gauffre that melted in my mouth.
3. She decided to make gauffres for breakfast, filling the kitchen with a sweet, warm aroma.
4. At the fair, the vendor offered a variety of gauffres, each more tempting than the last.
5. The gauffre was so light and airy that I could easily have eaten two or three.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gauffre>