

GAVEL

Meaning: A gavel is a small mallet used by a judge or presiding officer to signal authority or to call for order in a courtroom or meeting.

1. The judge raised the gavel, signaling the start of the proceedings.
2. With a firm strike of his gavel, he demanded order in the crowded courtroom.
3. After a lengthy debate, the committee chair brought the meeting to a close with a swift gavel tap.
4. The sound of the gavel echoed through the hall, marking the end of the trial.
5. She felt a rush of authority as she picked up the gavel and addressed the room.
6. The judge struck the gavel to signal the start of the proceedings.
7. As the debate intensified, the speaker pounded the gavel to regain control of the room.
8. With a firm tap of the gavel, the courtroom fell silent in anticipation of the verdict.
9. During the meeting, the chairperson used the gavel to emphasize her points and maintain order.
10. The sound of the gavel echoed through the chamber, marking the conclusion of a long session.
11. The judge struck the gavel firmly, signaling the start of the proceedings.
12. In a dramatic moment, she raised the gavel high before delivering her verdict.
13. The sound of the gavel echoed through the courtroom, commanding everyone's attention.
14. He reached for the gavel, ready to restore order in the chaotic meeting.
15. With a swift motion, the gavel came down, marking the end of the debate.
16. The judge struck the gavel to bring the courtroom to order.
17. As the debate intensified, the moderator raised the gavel to regain control of the discussion.
18. With a firm tap of the gavel, the trial officially commenced.
19. The sound of the gavel echoed through the hall, signaling the end of the session.
20. She felt a rush of authority as she banged the gavel for the final time that evening.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gavel>