

GAWK

Meaning: To gawk means to stare openly and in amazement or wonder, often with a sense of disbelief.

1. She couldn't help but gawk at the breathtaking view from the mountain top.
2. The children gawked in amazement as the magician performed his tricks.
3. He stood there to gawk at the celebrity, completely forgetting to take a picture.
4. It's rude to gawk at people, especially when they are having a private moment.
5. As the car drove by, she gawked at the shiny new sports model that she had always dreamed of.
6. She couldn't help but gawk at the stunning artwork displayed in the gallery.
7. The crowd began to gawk as the celebrity strolled down the street, surrounded by fans.
8. His tendency to gawk at strangers made him feel awkward during social gatherings.
9. The children gawked in disbelief as the magician performed his final trick.
10. They gawked at the breathtaking view from the top of the mountain, speechless with wonder.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gawk>