

GAZER

Meaning: GAZER (noun): A person who looks steadily and intently at something, often with admiration or wonder.

1. The artist's latest painting captivated every gazer in the gallery.
2. As the sun dipped below the horizon, a gazer stood in awe of the vibrant colors.
3. She noticed a gazer lingering at the window, lost in thought as the rain fell.
4. The telescope allowed the gazer to observe distant stars and planets with clarity.
5. In the stillness of the night, a gazer reflected on the beauty of the universe.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gazer>