

GAZETTEER

Meaning: A gazetteer is a geographical dictionary or directory that provides information about places, including their descriptions, locations, and historical significance.

1. The old gazetteer provided a wealth of information about the region's history and geography.
2. She referred to the gazetteer to find detailed descriptions of the towns and landmarks she planned to visit.
3. Researchers often consult gazetteers to ensure the accuracy of place names in their studies.
4. The gazetteer was an invaluable resource for the travelers, as it highlighted lesser-known attractions.
5. In his library, he kept a collection of gazetteers from various countries, each filled with fascinating details.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gazetteer>