

GAZINGSTOCK

Meaning: Gazingstock: a person or thing that attracts attention or curiosity, often in a way that is unusual or amusing.

1. The peculiar outfit she wore to the event made her the gazingstock of the evening.
2. Instead of feeling embarrassed, he embraced being the gazingstock, reveling in the attention.
3. The artist's unconventional installation turned the quiet park into a gazingstock for curious passersby.
4. In a small town, any unusual behavior can quickly make someone a gazingstock among the locals.
5. Despite the ridicule, she remained confident, refusing to let herself become a permanent gazingstock.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gazingstock>