

GEAL

Meaning: GEAL (noun): A state of desolation or bleakness, often characterized by a haunting or lifeless atmosphere.

1. The once vibrant garden now lay in geal, a shadow of its former self.
2. As the storm passed, an eerie geal enveloped the landscape, leaving silence in its wake.
3. He felt a sense of geal wash over him as he walked through the abandoned town.
4. In the dim light of the evening, there was a palpable geal that seemed to cling to the air.
5. Her laughter faded into a geal as she turned away, leaving him alone with his thoughts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/geal>