

GELIDLY

Meaning: GELIDLY: in a manner that is cold or icy, evoking a sense of chill or emotional detachment.

1. She stared gelidly at the icy landscape, feeling an unsettling chill in her bones.
2. As the wind howled through the trees, he walked gelidly, lost in his thoughts.
3. The lake lay gelidly beneath the winter sky, its surface untouched by any disturbance.
4. Her gelidly delivered words cut through the warm atmosphere of the gathering.
5. Even the fire seemed to burn gelidly in the frigid air, offering little comfort against the cold.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gelidly>