

GENERABLE

Meaning: GENERABLE: capable of being generated or produced.

1. The software can produce reports that are easily generable in various formats.
2. In the context of renewable energy, many resources are generable from natural processes.
3. The data provided is generable through simple algorithms that require minimal input.
4. With the right tools, customizable templates are generable for any type of presentation.
5. The new features include a suite of generable marketing materials for small businesses.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/generable>