

GENERAL

Meaning: General: relating to or affecting all or most people, things, or situations; widespread or common.

1. The general consensus was that the project needed more time to be completed.
2. In general, people tend to prefer sunny weather over rainy days.
3. The general manager announced a new initiative to improve employee satisfaction.
4. She has a general understanding of the topic, but she needs to delve deeper into the details.
5. The general shape of the building was modern, with sleek lines and large windows.
6. The general consensus among the team is to proceed with the new project.
7. She has a general understanding of the subject but lacks in-depth knowledge.
8. In general, the weather has been much warmer this year compared to last.
9. The general manager will address the staff about the recent changes in policy.
10. He made a general statement that didn't apply to everyone in the room.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/general>