

GENERALSHIP

Meaning: Generalship refers to the skill and ability to lead and command military operations effectively.

1. His generalship during the battle earned him widespread recognition and respect.
2. The success of the campaign was largely attributed to her exceptional generalship and strategic planning.
3. Throughout history, great leaders have demonstrated outstanding generalship in times of war.
4. The military academy emphasizes the importance of generalship in training future commanders.
5. His analysis of the generalship displayed in the conflict revealed both strengths and weaknesses in leadership.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/generalship>