

GENUFLECT

Meaning: Genuflect: to bend one knee to the ground as a gesture of respect or worship.

1. In many religious ceremonies, it is customary to genuflect before entering the sanctuary.
2. The knight had to genuflect in front of the king to show his loyalty and respect.
3. During the performance, the dancer would genuflect gracefully as part of her routine.
4. To express his admiration, he chose to genuflect in front of the statue of the revered leader.
5. As they walked into the church, they paused to genuflect at the altar in reverence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/genuflect>