

GEOLOGIZE

Meaning: To geologize means to study and analyze geological features, such as rock formations and minerals, in order to understand the Earth's structure and processes.

1. To truly understand the landscape, we must geologize and explore the rock formations in detail.
2. During the field trip, the students were excited to geologize and identify different types of minerals.
3. As they geologized the area, they discovered fascinating layers of sediment that told the story of ancient oceans.
4. The team decided to geologize the site further, hoping to uncover evidence of past volcanic activity.
5. He spent years geologizing remote regions, mapping out geological features that had never been documented before.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/geologize>