

GEORGIC

Meaning: Georgic: a poem or literary work that focuses on rural life, agriculture, and the natural world.

1. The poet's latest work is a beautiful georgic that celebrates the rhythms of rural life.
2. In his georgic, he skillfully intertwines themes of agriculture and nature's cycles.
3. The professor assigned a georgic that explores the relationship between humanity and the land.
4. Her passion for farming inspired her to write a georgic that reflects her values and experiences.
5. Many classical writers used the georgic form to convey moral lessons through pastoral imagery.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/georgic>