

GEPOUND

Meaning: 'GEPOUND' means to crush or grind something into a finer substance, often to enhance flavor or facilitate extraction.

1. The chef gepound the spices to release their rich flavors.
2. After hours of labor, the workers finally gepound the ore to extract the metal.
3. To prepare the dish, she decided to gepound the garlic until it became a smooth paste.
4. The ancient recipe called for gepounded herbs, which enhanced the aroma of the meal.
5. He used a mortar and pestle to gepound the nuts into a fine powder for the dessert.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gepound>