

GERMAN

Meaning: German (adjective): relating to Germany, its people, or the language spoken there.

1. The German language has a rich literary tradition that spans centuries.
2. She decided to enroll in a German course to prepare for her trip to Berlin.
3. The German economy is one of the strongest in Europe, known for its engineering and manufacturing.
4. They celebrated Oktoberfest, a famous German festival that attracts millions of visitors each year.
5. He enjoys listening to German music to improve his language skills and immerse himself in the culture.
6. The German language is known for its compound words and complex grammar rules.
7. She has been studying German for several years and can now hold a conversation fluently.
8. The festival featured traditional German music, food, and dance, attracting visitors from all over.
9. Many German philosophers have significantly influenced modern thought and culture.
10. He bought a car from a German manufacturer renowned for its engineering excellence.
11. The German language is known for its complex grammar and rich vocabulary.
12. She traveled to Germany to immerse herself in the vibrant culture and history.
13. The German efficiency in engineering is renowned around the world.
14. He enjoys studying German literature, especially the works of Goethe and Kafka.
15. Many German dishes, like sauerkraut and bratwurst, are popular in various cuisines.
16. She brewed a traditional German beer to celebrate Oktoberfest.
17. They traveled to Germany to experience the culture and history firsthand.
18. He enjoys listening to German classical music, especially composers like Bach and Beethoven.
19. The German economy is one of the strongest in Europe, driven by its industrial sector.
20. She has a deep appreciation for German cuisine, especially sausages and pretzels.
21. He studied German philosophy in college and found it profoundly influential.

22. The festival celebrated traditional German music and dance, drawing a large crowd.
23. They decided to travel to Germany to experience the culture and history firsthand.
24. The German landscape is known for its picturesque villages and rolling hills.
25. She decided to learn German to enhance her career opportunities in international business.
26. The German film festival showcased a diverse range of cinematic talents from the country.
27. He was fascinated by the rich history of German art and literature.
28. They enjoyed a traditional German meal at the local festival, complete with bratwurst and sauerkraut.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/german>