

GERMANIZE

Meaning: To Germanize means to adapt or modify something to reflect German culture, language, or customs.

1. To fully integrate into the community, they decided to Germanize their company policies.
2. The artist sought to Germanize his style by incorporating traditional elements from German culture.
3. During the cultural exchange, they aimed to Germanize the menu to better reflect local tastes.
4. Many immigrant families worked hard to Germanize their names for easier assimilation.
5. The linguist studied how to Germanize various English terms used in everyday conversation.
6. To fully integrate into the local culture, they decided to Germanize their names to better reflect their surroundings.
7. The company's strategy was to Germanize its product line in order to appeal to the domestic market.
8. In an effort to Germanize the curriculum, the school introduced more literature and history courses focused on German authors and events.
9. Her passion for the language inspired her to Germanize her blog, making it accessible to a wider audience.
10. The artist aimed to Germanize his work by incorporating traditional motifs and themes from German folklore.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/germanize>