

GERONTOCRACY

Meaning: Gerontocracy is a form of government or leadership in which power is held by older individuals, often resulting in policies that may not align with the needs of younger generations.

1. Gerontocracy often leads to a disconnect between the needs of younger generations and the policies implemented by older leaders.
2. In societies governed by gerontocracy, the wisdom of age can sometimes stifle innovation and progressive change.
3. The rise of technology and youth activism challenges the traditional structures of gerontocracy in modern politics.
4. Critics of gerontocracy argue that it perpetuates outdated values and hinders societal advancement.
5. As the population ages, discussions about the implications of gerontocracy are becoming increasingly relevant in public discourse.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gerontocracy>