

GERUNDIVE

Meaning: Gerundive: a verbal adjective in Latin that expresses necessity or obligation, often used to indicate a task that must be completed.

1. The gerundive in Latin serves as a verbal adjective, often indicating necessity or obligation.
2. In the phrase "the book to be read," the gerundive captures the idea of a task that requires completion.
3. Students often find the concept of a gerundive challenging when studying Latin grammar.
4. Knowing how to identify a gerundive can greatly enhance one's understanding of Latin sentence structures.
5. The use of a gerundive can add subtlety and nuance to the meaning of a sentence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gerundive>