

GESTOUR

Meaning: 'GESTOUR' (verb): To guide or lead an audience through a presentation or exhibition, often involving explanations or commentary.

1. The artist decided to gestour her latest work at the local gallery this weekend.
2. During the event, the curator will gestour the audience through the various exhibits.
3. He intends to gestour the participants to ensure they fully appreciate the historical context of the artifacts.
4. As part of the tour, she will gestour the group to the most significant landmarks in the city.
5. To enhance the experience, the guide will gestour us through the intricate details of the architecture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gestour>