

GHASTLINESS

Meaning: Ghastliness refers to the quality of being shockingly frightful or gruesome, often evoking horror or disgust.

1. The ghastliness of the abandoned house sent shivers down her spine.
2. As the investigation unfolded, the ghastliness of the crime scene became increasingly evident.
3. He couldn't shake the feeling of ghastliness that lingered in the air after the storm passed.
4. The movie was filled with such ghastliness that it left the audience both shocked and intrigued.
5. Her description of the accident was laced with a ghastliness that haunted him for days.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ghastliness>