

GHASTNESS

Meaning: Ghastness refers to the quality of being shockingly frightful or horrifying, often evoking a sense of dread or terror.

1. The ghastness of the abandoned mansion sent chills down her spine as she stepped inside.
2. His eyes widened in horror at the ghastness of the scene before him, a grim reminder of the past.
3. The film's depiction of the ghastness of war left the audience in stunned silence.
4. In literature, the author often explores the ghastness of human nature in times of despair.
5. The ghastness of the storm outside mirrored the turmoil she felt within her heart.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ghastness>