

GHAT

Meaning: Ghat: A series of steps or a platform leading down to a river, often used for rituals and gatherings, especially in South Asia.

1. The pilgrims gathered at the ghat to perform their rituals at dawn.
2. The steep steps leading down to the river made the ghat an iconic spot for locals and tourists alike.
3. As the sun set, the ghat was illuminated by thousands of flickering lamps, creating a magical atmosphere.
4. She often visited the ghat to meditate and find peace along the flowing waters.
5. During the festival, the ghat was filled with vibrant colors, music, and the aroma of delicious street food.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ghat>