

GHETTO

Meaning: Ghetto: a densely populated urban area characterized by economic hardship and social marginalization, often inhabited by a specific ethnic or cultural group.

1. The artist's work highlights the resilience and creativity found in the ghetto.
2. Many people struggle to break free from the cycle of poverty that often defines life in the ghetto.
3. Community programs are vital in providing support and opportunities for youth growing up in the ghetto.
4. The movie depicted the harsh realities of life in the ghetto with striking authenticity.
5. Despite the challenges, there is a strong sense of solidarity among residents in the ghetto.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ghetto>