

GHOSTLESS

Meaning: GHOSTLESS: adjective describing a place that is free of ghosts or supernatural spirits.

1. The haunted house was surprisingly ghostless, much to the relief of the timid visitors.
2. After years of rumors, the old mansion was finally declared ghostless, attracting curious tourists.
3. In a ghostless world, people would no longer fear the unknown lurking in the shadows.
4. The paranormal investigator was thrilled to find the abandoned asylum completely ghostless.
5. Children in the village often played in the ghostless cemetery, unaware of its eerie history.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ghostless>