

GIBBER

Meaning: To gibber means to speak rapidly and unintelligibly, often in a way that expresses excitement or confusion.

1. The toddler began to gibber excitedly as he played with his new toys.
2. In the crowded café, the chatter turned into a background gibber that filled the air.
3. As the speaker lost his train of thought, he started to gibber nonsensically, confusing the audience.
4. The parrot could gibber a few phrases it had picked up from its owner, much to everyone's amusement.
5. During the heated debate, one participant began to gibber, making it hard for anyone to follow his argument.
6. The toddler began to gibber excitedly as he played with his new toy.
7. During the lecture, she couldn't help but gibber nervously as she awaited her turn to speak.
8. His mind was racing, and all he could do was gibber incoherently in response to the shocking news.
9. The group of friends sat around the campfire, gibbering about their favorite childhood memories.
10. As the caffeine kicked in, he started to gibber about random topics, much to his friends' amusement.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gibber>