

GIBBERISH

Meaning: Gibberish is nonsensical or unintelligible speech or writing that is difficult to understand.

1. The child spoke in gibberish, making it impossible to understand what he was saying.
2. During the meeting, he often resorted to gibberish when he couldn't find the right words.
3. The ancient script looked like gibberish to anyone who wasn't trained to read it.
4. She laughed when her friend tried to explain the complex theory in gibberish.
5. After a few drinks, his conversation turned into a mix of gibberish and laughter.
6. The young child spoke in gibberish, delighting her parents with her creative expressions.
7. When I tried to understand his explanation, it sounded like pure gibberish to me.
8. The author's latest novel was filled with gibberish that left readers confused and frustrated.
9. During the lecture, the professor's use of jargon made it difficult for the students to follow, turning his points into gibberish.
10. She laughed when her friend attempted to imitate a foreign language, producing nothing but gibberish.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gibberish>