

GIDDY-HEAD

Meaning: GIDDY-HEAD: a state of light-headedness or euphoric excitement, often resulting from joy or exhilaration.

1. After spinning around in circles, the children fell to the ground, their laughter echoing as they felt giddy-head.
2. The unexpected surprise left her feeling giddy-head, as if she had just stepped off a thrilling roller coaster.
3. He couldn't help but feel giddy-head at the thought of the adventure that awaited him on his birthday trip.
4. As the music played and the party lights twinkled, a giddy-head atmosphere enveloped the room, making everyone dance with joy.
5. The combination of excitement and nervousness made him giddy-head as he prepared to give his first speech on stage.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/giddy-head>