

GILD

Meaning: To gild means to cover something with a thin layer of gold or a gold-like substance, often to enhance its appearance.

1. The artist chose to gild the edges of the canvas to add a touch of elegance.
2. She decided to gild the old picture frame to match her newly decorated living room.
3. To celebrate the occasion, they planned to gild the cake with edible gold leaf.
4. The architect wanted to gild the dome of the building to make it stand out against the skyline.
5. He felt that the compliments he received were just a way to gild the truth about his shortcomings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gild>